Sign up for HaFI Friends today and help give the Harun Farocki Institut a lasting future.

As a non-profit organization without commercial income, we rely primarily on donations, voluntary work to finance our minimal infrastructure and project funding. Occasional funded collaborations have also enabled us to develop programming, publishing, and research projects with other organizations and partners.

Become a Friend! You can contribute to HaFI's ability to multiply and expand what Harun Farocki called our "labor contact points."
